Hi Marguerite-

I sent you the sharepoint link (I hope it works for you ok) . It would probably be easiest for you to work in that file but if for whatever reason sharepoint is acting up, a separate file is fine and I can move the comments over.

Thank you again,

Hi, again!

I was working through the revisions and decided that it would be far easier for you for them to be in SharePoint, rather than a separate file. I thus just requested SharePoint access (I only had access to a specific document version from September). I'm glad to do whichever is ultimately easier for you – please just let me know, and I can finish that today.

I'm flexiplacing today and tomorrow, so if you'd like to chat, just call my work cell

Hi –

Great — we have a plan.

I would like to participate in that conversation with OGC, so thanks for offering to include me.

Best,

Marguerite

Thanks Marguerite- that sounds like a good plan. Elliott and Howard have been back through it, and you can see their comments in the master on sharepoint. I'll look forward to connecting with you tomorrow or Friday. I still need to go back through OGC's comments and to the extent I can address them. Steve indicated that he may want to have a check in with OGC to understand their comments too, so I will probably set something up.... Is that something you want to participate in?

Thanks again,

Amy

Hi, Amy,

Thanks for checking in – I have owed you a check in! I have been through the full document and made all of my comments in hardcopy, which I am putting into the electronic version today. Perhaps it would be most productive if you and I talk after you have a chance to see those, and we can go over any questions you have.

I told David last week I think the package is close. I am curious about OGC's further comments.

I anticipate getting the electronic version back to you by the end of today. If that changes, I will let you know. Perhaps we can talk either tomorrow or Friday. Does that sound good?

Best,

Marguerite

Hi Marguerite-

Just checking in to see if you have had a chance to re-look at the oil and gas policy package? I understand from Steve that management is hoping to move another advance draft to Bill in the coming couple of weeks. I have another round of OGC comments to go through and hope to address any additional comments you have as well.

Thanks for your time,

Amy
